By C. CAJERO, Deputy

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA
County of Orange, Lamoreaux Justice Center

_____ PETITIONER / PLAINTIFF	CASE NO.: _____  ORDER TO ATTEND MEDIATION APPOINTMENT vs.
_____ RESPONDENT / DEFENDANT

ORDER: The Court orders both parties to be personally present to attend a mandatory mediation regarding any disputed custody and/or visitation issues. A mediation appointment is required by Family Code Section 3170 if you do not agree about custody and visitation.

You are ordered to meet with a Court Mediator on _____ at _____

You must check in at the appointment time at the Family Court Services Office, 341 The City Drive, Room 507, Orange, California. (657) 622-6196. If you or the other party are more than thirty (30) minutes late checking in, your appointment will be cancelled and made available to other parents. Parents are advised that your children are not to be present for the mediation session, unless ordered by the Court, or requested by the Court Mediator.

A Declaration of Non-Appearance will be sent to the Court if one or both of the parties do not attend the Mediation or fail to telephone Family Court Services to cancel the appointment. No appointment can be changed or cancelled without agreement by both parties, and by both parties telephoning Family Court Services.

Please bring copies of the current court filings including all declarations to your mediation appointment.
